ANDOVER.

The best feeling man in Andover is O. A. Andrews. He's over a new kid at his house.

A real old fashioned winter is what the Andoverites are getting. We've had before last we had two snow storms in which thirty inches of snow fell. Old Snow has been busy all the time since so our roads are nearly impassable—some of them quite. Well, when he lets up we can have good roads. Our machine does good work, for those variable the limits.

F. M. Thomas is confined to the house. He is under the doctor's care.

Carroll Sweet is improving.

The last quarterly conference for the year was held at the Methodist church last Sunday. Services were held in the morning, afternoon and evening.

John V. Newton and C. W. Thomas went to Boston Monday.

Eben Leaman has returned from Paris. He has been there on the last of the year.

GILEAD.

News was received last week that May Penbury was quite sick and that a telegram arrived stating that she was not expected to live (typhoid fever). Her father and mother are in Andover, and the Andoverites all remained in camp, a rare occurrence, whether they did not receive any mail after Friday the 12th till the next Friday.

Only one team passed over from Upton to Bethel after Sunday night a few days ago. A few days ago.

Mrs. Walter Davis is quite sick.

Dr. Williamson of Gorham, N. H., is in town daily and twice a day.

Augie Elsie Burbank is gaining slowly.

Esther Newbury is sick with a cold.

Chas. Morse is sick.

Glad to say roads are getting broken out and we are having pleasant weather morning, afternoon and evening.

No preaching at the church last Sunday.

Another wedding very soon.

WATFORD.

A veritable blizzard came to us Monday the 20th inst. when one foot of snow fell, and was followed by another equally as severe the 22nd, and another foot of snow on the 24th. The Andoverites all remained in camp, a rare occurrence, whether they did not receive any mail after Friday the 12th till the next Friday.
